

Taking the Stand

Live Conversation with Nazi Era Witness

Date and Time: October 8th, 2015, 4 PM

Harvard University, Emerson Hall 105, Cambridge, MA, USA

Author and award-winning filmmaker Bernhard Rammerstorfer interviews Mrs. Hermine Liska, survivor of the Nazi regime, as part of a national tour across the United States to introduce high school and college students to experiences of this oppressed generation. Born into a family of Jehovah's Witnesses, a religious group rejecting Nazi ideology, Mrs. Liska was forced to take part in a Nazi reeducation program. Mr. Rammerstorfer has conducted several projects concerning survivors of the Nazi regime and hopes to provide a forum for interaction between its survivors and people interested in hearing first-hand accounts of life during World War II.

For further information please visit: www.TakingTheStand.net

Sponsors: Harvard Club of Austria, Laura and Lorenz Reibling Foundation

Program Information: harvardaustria@gmail.com